"There is a baptism with which I must be baptized, and how great is my anguish until it is accomplished! Do you think that I have come to establish peace on the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. From now on a household of five will be divided, three against two and two against three." - Lk 12:50-52

Journey of Faith: The Gravity of Following Christ: Join General Kevin Chilton, an astronaut who took the Eucharist to space as he recounts the exciting details and unique life experiences of his time with NASA and the planes but his Catholic faith and his openness to all that God set before him continues to take him farther than he ever dreamt for himself.

PRAYERS IN LATIN

In the celebration of the Mass, we raise our voices in prayer united with the Church throughout the world. At times, we emphasize this unity through a common language of the Church, which is Latin.
Below is the text for the Gloria and Pater Noster (Our Father).

Gloria

Gloria in excelsis Deo

Et in terra pax hominibus bonae voluntatis

Laudamus te

Benedicimus te

Adoramus te

Glorificamus te

Gratias agimus tibi

Propter magnam gloriam tuam

Domine Deus, Rex caelestis

Deus Pater omnipotens

Domine Fili unigenite Jesu Christe

Domine Deus, Agnus Dei, Filius Patris

Qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis

Qui tollis peccata mundi, suscipe deprecationem nostram

Qui sedes ad dexteram Patris, miserere nobis

Quoniam tu solus sanctus

Tu solus Dominus

Tu solus altissimus, Jesu Christe

Cum sancto Spiritu, in gloria Dei Patris

Our Father/Pater Noster

Pater Noster

qui es in caelis,

sanctificetur nomen tuum.

Adveniat regnum tuum.

Fiat voluntas tua,

sicut in caelo et in terra.

Panem nostrum quotidianum da nobis hodie,

et dimitte nobis debita nostra,

sicut et nos

dimittimus debitoribus nostris.

Et ne nos inducas in tentationem:

sed libera nos a malo.

Parish Stewardship

40 Hours for the Parish:

A couple weeks ago, Fr. Kendall asked that each parishioner give 40 hours of time to the parish each year. Throughout the year, several opportunities will come up when the parish is in need of help. Right now, there are a handful of areas where we can use a hand. Some of them are help for one time, and others are needed on a regular basis. If you are looking for a way to help in giving some time, please consider volunteering for any of the following. Please contact Fr. Kendall if you're interested to help (816-756-6570), or Tami in the office.

Mary's Garden: Mary's Garden is in need of trimming, clean up and regular care.

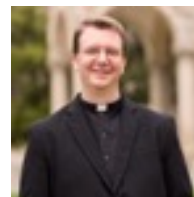

Parish gardens and flower beds: There are several garden and landscaped areas around the parish. Particularly around Our Lady of Guadalupe; The two beds around the entrance to the ministry center.

St. Joseph: There are two landscaped beds by the entrance to the ministry center. One has a statue of Mary, but we are in need of a similar statue of St. Joseph for the other bed and someone to volunteer to take care of the bed.

Bicentennial Celebration: 2023 marks the 200th anniversary of the foundation of St. Mary's. Fr. Kendall is recruiting a committee to begin planning a year long celebration to mark the occasion. Please contact him if you are interested in serving on the planning committee.

Hospitality: St. Joseph the Worker parish is closing before the end of the year and they will become part of the St. Mary's community. Our hospitality to them will be one of the most important aspects and gifts that we can offer our brothers and sisters in making this transition. Fr. Kendall would like at least 3-5 people as a temporary council to help in this transition over the next weeks and months.

BULLETIN COLUMN THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

At the Moment of Death:

We see, in the Virgin Mary, the Mother of God, the perfection of humanity and the example of one who received all of the graces that God desires to give to us. This is only fitting that He would bestow upon the one who gave birth, and raised His only-begotten Son, all of His gifts, without any reservation. We can look to her and see what He also desires to give to each of us, and would receive if we had not sinned. The graces that one receives at the moment of death, and the Grace of a good death is among those.

The moment of death is a privileged time in our lives. It is something that each of us passes through, yet it is also entirely unknown. There is a lot of room for doubt and uncertainty, not only in what is happening to us, but also in what is going to happen for those we love who will be left behind. As we celebrate the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we recall the graces God has in store for those who love Him, and the moment of her passing.

At the Assumption, what is called the Dormition by our brothers in the East, Mary was assumed fully, body and soul into heaven. She, unlike us, being the God Bearer and protected from sin ascended immediately upon her death. She died in complete peace, without fear, with full confidence in Her Lord, and free of any suffering. She passed from this life, into the next in the company of the Angels, and the Saints who had been raised with Christ.

These gifts await all those who die in a state of Grace. It is also one of the significant benefits and reasons for receiving the final sacraments: the Apostolic Pardon, Anointing of the Sick and Viaticum (communion). We also pray to St. Joseph, especially for those we love, as patron of the dying for a good and happy death:

Prayer for a Happy Death

O Glorious St. Joseph, behold I choose thee today for my special patron in life and at the hour of my death. Preserve and increase in me the spirit of prayer and fervor in the service of God. Remove far from me every kind of sin; obtain for me that my death may not come upon me unawares, but that I may have time to confess my sins sacramentally and to bewail them with a most perfect understanding and a most sincere and perfect contrition, in order that I may breathe forth my soul into the hands of Jesus and Mary.
